Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

25th October 2026

A Prayer of the Dual Law of Love

Heavenly Father,

You have shown us that the fullness of Your law is found in love. Grant me the grace to obey Your first and greatest commandment: to love You, with all my heart, with all my soul, and with all my mind.

♥ With all my heart:

Let my deepest affections and desires be anchored in You. Purify my intentions so that You are the centre of my joy.

♥ With all my soul:

Let my spiritual life be fully surrendered to Your will. Breathe Your Holy Spirit into me.

♥ With all my mind:

Quiet my anxious thoughts and pride. Direct my focus to Your truth and love.

Help me to see others through Your eyes. Break down the walls of my selfishness, impatience and judgment. Teach me to serve my brothers and sisters — especially those who are difficult to love, forgotten or in need — with the same kindness, patience and forgiveness that You continually pour out on me.

Let my love for You be shown in the way I treat others, so that by loving my neighbour, I may truly love and glorify You.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
